To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to highly recommend Jodi Powers to your organization for her strong professional capabilities and her dedication to achievement.

Our national economy has dictated a reduction in size of our DLR Group staff and Jodi is an unfortunate victim of that reduction.

Jodi has provided our profession and our firm with outstanding talent and continuous effort in marketing, business development, public relations and sustainability arenas of work. She is committed and energetic in approaching her roles and her performance is always thorough and complete.

I strongly encourage you to consider Jodi Powers for your Company needs.

Sincerely,
DLR Group

Bryce D. Pearsall, FAIA
